SOLICITORS

The background features a photograph of a modern office interior with a blurred background of shelves and a desk. In the foreground, two orange chairs are visible. The image is overlaid with several semi-transparent geometric shapes: a large orange square in the top left, a teal shape in the bottom left, and a grey shape in the bottom right. The text 'EMPLOYMENT LAW' is written in a white, sans-serif font across the bottom of the image.

EMPLOYMENT LAW

Whether you are an employee or employer, your workplace should be a positive environment to work in. When disputes occur, they can have significant negative implications for all involved. Our team of employment law solicitors advise on the best ways of achieving a positive work environment and reduce the impact of an employment dispute by providing honest, practical advice and expertise in the employment law field.

Employment law is complex and constantly changing. Our employment law team provide specialist legal advice, guiding you through the process providing solutions, with common sense and with attractive costs options.

CHARGES

For individuals, we will recognise that legal costs can be a headache and we have a number of funding options available to help, which include:

- No win no fee agreements
- Fixed fees
- Insurance funded work
- Hourly rate charges

For employers, we will also consider fixed fees, insurance funded work and our popular employment package. Please ask a member of the team for more details.
